Translated from Polish and annotated by Zeev Schuss.

Original lists of the children who arrived to Eretz Israel in the middle of World War II, after escape from occupied Poland to Russia, suffering hunger, diseases, orphanage...

Survived life of helpless wandering child refugees in Syberia, the Asian Republics of U.S.S.R, Iran and finally Eretz Israel.

"To the memory of the fathers, the mothers and the children whose bones marked the stations of suffering in the inhuman areas of Eastern Europe, Sibiria and Central Asia"

"לזכר האבות, האמהות והילדים שעצמותיהם סימנו את תחנות הסבל בשטחים הלא אנושיים של אירופה המזרחית, סיביר ואסיה המרכזית"

Notes:

- 1) The number given is the number according to the original list at Henryk Grynberg's book, the first list of children who arrived to Eretz Israel on February 18th 1943. List 2 (arrived August 1943) numbers were followed by "b".
- 2) Number 204 missing in the original list.
- 3) No. 238,239,240 are double!
- 4) Numbers marked with "b" are the numbers given to second list of children who came to Eretz Israel in August 1943
- 5) There is no mother mentioned nor a place of birth in the August 43 list. (followed by "b")
- 6) The protocol numbers are the protocols registered with the children's testimony and are the basis of Grynberg's book pages 189-193
- 7) No. 822 -843 were added to the list by me as appeared only in the protocols list.
- 8) I added question mark to the names of places which I did not identify.
- 9) In the protocols the age appear and not the year of birth. I presume the year of reference was 1943.

10) In the protocol list many of the given names were changed to Hebrew. I left the Polish/Yiddish original names.

11) After finishing the translation I found another source in Hebrew: Gadith Shamir: "The Tehran Children" Since the Eruption of Second World war, Published by the Public Commission to Commemorate the "Tehran Children" by Meir Ohad, Tel Aviv 1989. This is the original list which was translated to Hebrew in Grynberg's book. I matched my entries to this list. There I found the original list (but only those who arrived on February 18th, 1943), which was translated to Hebrew in Grynberg's book. I matched my entries to this list.

12) Mr. Henryk Grynberg, the author, proofread the translated list, and I thank him very much.

13) Mr. Grynberg advise that the protocols of the children testimonies are in the archives of the Hoover Institution at Stanford University in the collection "Poland - Ministry of Information and Documentation," Box 197, Folders 1-4, "Polish Information center - Jerusalem, reports of Jewish Deportees."
